DMYTRO GUNKO

FULL-STACK DEVELOPER

SUMMARY

Full-Stack developer with strong knowledge of HTML, CSS, JavaScript, React Query and Next.js, experienced in both individual and collaborative projects. I've developed strong discipline, critical thinking, and a self-driven work ethic through both technical work and competitive sports. As a key and experienced team player in a high-level athletic setting, I bring leadership, adaptability, and strong communication to every environment. Eager to join a high-standard, forward-thinking development community where curiosity, collaboration, and continuous improvement are valued.
